For the safety of your student, we require that the person picking up your child come in the building and sign them out at the end of class. PLEASE NOTE - All adults picking up their student will be required to show a driver's license or valid photo I.D.

CREATIVE QUEST

For students who have COMPLETED grades 1 or 2 by June 2019.

Summers are action-packed as our Creative Quest campers seek out adventures in the arts! Students are divided into groups by age, and rotate through daily workshops in acting, singing, dancing, and tech – all guided by our experienced theatre faculty and fantastic teacher assistants. After a fun audition on the first day, every camper gets a part to play in a script written specifically for their age group, and performed on the Meijer Majestic Stage on the last day of camp!

DRAMATIC DISCOVERY

For students who have COMPLETED grades 3 through 6 by June 2019.

Campers love making discoveries in every aspect of theatre from acting, singing & dancing, to props, costumes, and scenery! Students are divided into groups by age, and audition for a part in a script written just for them – everyone is cast, and everyone gets their own lines although the roles vary in size just like a real theatre production. Experienced theatre faculty nurture and guide students as they reach dramatic new heights and prepare for a performance on the Meijer Majestic Stage on the final day of camp!
